After winning the Gold Award at Event Awards in 2017, Athens Xclusive Designers Week is ready to start again the competition.

As over the years famous designers have shown their collections on the scene of the most important fashion event in Greece, this year 9 of the best Romanian designers will be present at the 24th edition of the AXDW, among the event special guest, Zuhair Murat.

The event will take place in the beautiful Athens National Garden at ZAPPEION MEGARON and will host more than 50 designers from all over the world.

From 1st to 4th November, all 9 Romanian designers will have their shows supported by the Romanian Government and Romanian Design Federation and on 3th November will organize a special event in the Romanian Embassy in Athens.
